```
Js servidor.js X
                                                                  JS cliente.js
JS servidor.js > [❷] server > ♦ net.createServer() callback > ♦ connection.on('( JS cliente.js > 😭 client.on('end') callback
                                                                                  client.end();
      const net = require('net');
                                                                              }else{
                                                                                  client.write(msg);
       const server = net.createServer(function (con)
           connection.on('data', function(data){ console.log('Cliente conectado ' + da client.on('data', function (data) {
               var data2 = data.toString();
                                                                              console.log(data.toString());
               datos = data2.split('/', 2);
               switch(datos[0]) {
                                                                          client.on('end', function () {
                     if(datos[1]=='123456')
                                                                             rl.close();
                       connection.write('Bienvenido |
                        connection.end();
PROBLEMS OUTPUT DEBUG CONSOLE TERMINAL
                                                                                                                     1: node, powershell
PS D:\Carpetas\Umsa\LAB-273\Auxiliatura\Tarea 2\tcp> node servidor.js 7
                                                                        PS D:\Carpetas\Umsa\LAB-273\Auxiliatura\Tarea 2\tcp> node cliente.js
                                                                        Bienvenido al sistema LAB 273
000
Servidor corriendo en puerto 7000
                                                                        Ingrese usuario y contraseña (user/pass)
Cliente conectado dcopalupe/123456
                                                                        dcopalupe/123456
                                                                        Bienvenido Dan Israel Copa Lupe!!!!!
                                                                        PS D:\Carpetas\Umsa\LAB-273\Auxiliatura\Tarea 2\tcp>
```

